WOOD-WORKING INDUSTRY

Wood-working industry is one of the largest industries of Belarus.

Belarus exports timber and its products in more than 50 countries and imports wood products from 20 countries.

At the average, the Belarusians spend for furniture 52 USD per year and consume 32 kg of paper.

At the interior wood-working market the demand for domestic products dominates.

"Bellesbumprom" is a monopolist in harvesting of wood and producing of wood products.

In wood-working sector of Belarus there are large investment projects with foreign investors.

Wood-working industry has share of 4% in total industrial production. Share of wood-working factory in forest, wood-working and pulp and paper industry is 72.6%. In 2011 output amounted to 1439 mn USD.

In 2011 exports of wood products accounted for 964 mn USD (24% growth to 2010). Imports amounted to 423 mn USD (19% increase compared to 2010). Belarus exports wood products to Russia, Poland, Germany, the Baltic countries, Kazakhstan, Ukraine and other countries. Wood products are imported from Russia, Ukraine, Italy, France, Germany, Poland, the Baltic countries and other countries.

In 2011, according to the estimation of UNITER, woodworking market capacity was 898 mn USD. Consumption of paper per capita in Belarus is about 32 kg. This figure is significantly lower than in EU countries and also lower than in Russia (48 kg) and Poland (80 kg). Furniture consumption per capita in Belarus is 52 USD, that is higher than in the Baltic countries (22-33 USD), Ukraine (9 USD) and the world average (46 USD), but significantly lower than in EU countries (at the average 252 USD), Russia (105 USD) and Poland (104 USD).

In Belarus in the wood-working industry the demand for domestic products dominates (especially at the furniture market). At the average the share of imported furniture accounts for only 9% (in Russia 19%). At the wallpaper market both domestic and imported products have 50% share. The state supports local producers, limits access of foreign producers, establishes high tariffs on imported products and provides domestic producers with various incentives.

Wood-working industry is mainly represented by timber, woodworking, pulp and paper industry concern "Bellesbumprom". "Bellesbumprom" is a monopolist in the harvesting of wood and production of its products. "Bellesbumprom" includes 60 enterprises, that concentrates 70% of wood processing, 38% of furniture production in the Republic of Belarus.

Till 2016 "Kronospam" is going to invest 150 mn USD in construction of a plant of wood boards and wood-based floor coverings. In 2012 a vertically integrated wood-processing complex will be built in free economic zone "Mogilev". The Lithuanian group VMG will build three plants for production of chipboard panels, furniture parts made of veneer sheets and cabinet furniture. The total project value is 77 mn euro. According to the agreement with SBA its subsidiary "Mebelain" will produce furniture under IKEA brand and will use chipboard and veneer furniture components made by "VMG Industry."
